ABOUT ME

I consider myself a very friendly, optimistic and positive person, which allows me to easily meet and communicate with people. Therefore, working in your company would be an excellent opportunity to improve my languages skills, as well as my knowledge in the field of programming, meet new colleagues, share educational and social experiences. If there is anything else I can tell you about myself, I'm a very dedicated, hardworking and serious person. My plan during professional practice is to, first of all, to help you develop projects and to improve my knowledge. Your company could allow me to do this great job, with a lots discipline and commitment. I hope you will give me the opportunity to be part of your team.
